Normes .- District of Columbia Advertisement to be inserted in the BALTIMORE SUN are received at and forwarded from THE STAR Office.

Find Presentation—Saturday evening last, a beautiful stand of colors was presented to the first regiment District volunteers by Mayor Wallach on behalf of the ladies of the Fifth Ward. The ceremony took place in the park east of the Capitol. Before the hour appointed for the ceremonles, pattering drops warned the assemblage (which included a handsome representation of the ladies of Capitol Hill of the coming rain, and all took shelter beneath the thick cluster of trees, where the flag underwent a course of inspection at the hands of the crowd that would do credit to the most rigid inspector of Uncle Sam. The fing—manufactured by Globs, of Salitimore—is an elegant affair, of the regular Army size, splendidly mounted, bearing the stars and stripes, with the inscription on one side of the Union, "First Regiment District of Columbia Volunteers." On the arrival of Mayor Wallach, a circle of the officers of the regiment, enclosing the Colonel and Mayor, was formed upon the gravel walk, when, taking the banner in his hand, the Mayor addressed the representatives of the District volunteers as fol-

Col. Tait and officers of the First District regi-ment: In behalf of the ladies of the Fifth Wardmany of whom I am happy to see here, notwith-standing the rain, to adorn this occasion—I have the honor to present to you this beautiful stand of colors. It is no ordinary compliment to you, coming as it does from those among whom you have lived and who know you, and it is peculiarly gratifying to me, from my long intimacy with you all, to be the medium of the gift. You are about going to perform a duty that is common to us all, but one which belongs more properly to the men of this District than those of any other part of the country This is the seat of the Na-tional Government, its public buildings have been placed here in our care. That grand old edifice opposite (the Capitol) is in our keeping, and we must protect it. When first called upon to do so, you responded nobly, and now you are again ready with brave hearts to meet your brethren from all sections of the country, and unite with them in driving back the rebels who have taken up arms against it. I am satisfied that if opportunity offers to show your gallantry, your valor will be as great as I know your loyalty to

Col. Tait, taking the flag, said : Mr. Mayor and ladies, as officers of the District of Columbia, we thank you, and through you, our lady friends, for this beautiful and appropriate compliment. It is usual on occasions like the present to make promises that are never fulfilled. We will not say that we will carry this flag into the thickest of the fight, and that where it waves we will follow, but we will promise to remember that this em-blem of our country was presented to us within the shadow of the nation's Capitol, and that it was the gift of woman. With this remembrance we cannot prove unfaithful to it. Even here where we stand the echo of the voices of our great men have been heard; here the feet of the mmortal Washington may have trod the sod; here in days gone by the shout of joy has ascended to Heaven on independence day from a united and happy people; but now, alas, times have changed! Our glorious old banner has been torn down and trampled under foot by our brethren, but the morning sun of the country's resurrection from evil is already visible, and the star spangled banner will again soon wave over a united and happy nation. Let others make their selection. we have made ours. Under this glorious old banner we have lived and prospered, and if it is God's will we will die in its defense

Again, ladies, I thank you for presenting beautiful gift, and will promise you that it shall never be disgraced in the hands of the District [Aprlause] Mayor Wallach .- We all believe so

After a brief apology from Col. Talt for the absence of his regiment, (which could not leave the camp without much difficulty in obtaining a permit,) three hearty cheers were given by the officers for the ladies of the Fifth Ward, accompanied by a rousing "tiger," when the company briskly dispersed for their homes to escape the rain, and the officers of the District of Columbia regiment piled into their coach and left for camp, cheering lustily as they drove away.

A SCREW LOOSE .- Although the military authorities here are exercising more caution new than at previous time in the granting of passes, instances of gross carelessness, if not something worse, are occasionally brought to our notice. The abuses we speak of are not chargeable to those who grant passes, but to discontinuous and points. These men, meaning well no doubt.

INDIA RUBBER BLANKETS FOR HALF PRICE, beoften subject persons of undoubted loyalty to ling sightly discolored, but not lequed for delay and inconvenience, while they pass without question others known to our citizens to be inimical to the Government. This may be owing to the plausible to be told by these "would-be secessionists if mey dared;" but it is nevertheless culpable in a high degree. Union men would cheerfully bear the annoyance of a rigid scrutiny, if while undergoing it they were saved the more if, while undergoing it, they were saved the mor-tification of seeing "Southern Rights" men, on the plea of business or something else, elbow past them with unblushing effrontery on their way "within the lines." Only last week, we are informed on good authority, that while workmen on the fortifications on the Virginia side were stopped by the guard at the Alexandria aqueduct until their foreman could go to Gen. McClellan's office in Washington to get passes, and were thus kept waiting until 10 o'clock, they saw well known sympathisers with the cause of the South pass the sentries unchallenged. Whilst we would oppose making martyrs of even avowed secessionists in our midst, who talk only and have not the power to damage the cause of the Union, and while we would accord the same exemption to those prudent souls who hold their tongues and wait their time, we would at the same time allow no man to hold office or pass within the lines of the army, unless his loyalty was above suspicion. There is hardly a man in this community whose sentiments are not known, there is certainly not an earnest Union man who is not well known to be such, and while this is the case, there is no reason why the abuses we speak of should continue one day.

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH THE PROVOST GUARD!—We hear daily complaints of drunken-ages and disorderly conduct on the part of some portions of the Provost Guard, particularly in Georgetown and suburban localities in this city We have forborne to speak of it until we are compelled to do so by the weight of evidence pre-sented. We omit all mention of minor offences, but there is one occurrence which demands some notice. On last Friday night a large squad of the guard-probably twenty or thirty-attended a ball at the house of a man named Ridley, near the market house, in Georgetown, which, we understand, was got up for their entertainment. Why so many of them were allowed to be out for a frolic, we do not understand. At any rate; towards midnight the fun grew fast and furious, and a more drunken or riotous crowd is seldom Sergeant Newman and his patrolmen were on hand, but they were utterly unable to cope with so large a gang of armed men The affair wound up with a free fight, and one of the regulars (Provost Guard) was, as a spectator says, "pretty well knocked in the head by young Ridley." (the son of the host.) The soldier was conveyed to the hospital with a head badly cut, and young Ridley was arrested by the patrolmen, which put a stop to the festivities. We have a few other cases in reserve, but this will suffice BAYONETED.—Yesterday, a Sergeant, with a squad of men belonging to the 31st Pennsylvania regiment, were sent to this city to arrest and ret turn to their quarters certain men of the regimenwho had left the camp without leave. Among be delinquents were two brothers named Kaine privates of Company C, who were overhauled by the squad at the corner of Maryland avenue and Four-and-a-half street. J. T. Kaine refused to bey the order of the Sergeant, and fall in with he squad, and became violent. The Sergeant plead with him a long time without effect, and breats were as useless as persuasion. The Sergeant then undertook to take him by force, when geant then undertook to take him by lorce, when a scuffle ensued, in which the Sergeant bayoneted Kaine, the bayonet entering his left side, a little below the heart, and passed through his body. The wounded man opened his clothes and immediately laid down upon the pavement. Drs. Morgan and Willett rendered what aid they could in a short time after the act was committed, and the wounded man was taken to the in-firmary. The Sergeant and his squad were conveyed to the guardhouse by the Provost Guard, to await an investigation by military authority The wounded man is doing well this morning.

CHANGE OF PRISON.—About thirty soldiers were yesterday afternoon taken from the crowded cells of the central guardhouse to the not ess crowded cells of the county jall. They are charged with desertion, insubordination, and kindred offences. This is a change of locality, but can hardly be called a change of scene. THE RIVER—The only arrivals since our last report are the schr. Chas. H. Hecksbire, at Carter's wharf, with coal for Drury; schr. E. J. Pickup, at Harvey's wharf, with coal for Harvey; and a number of small craft with sweet potatoes, wood, &c.

HIGH LIFE BELOW STATES -- We clip the following from the "Washington correspondence" of the "Anglo African," a really bandsome and well-filled weekly paper published by the colored persuasion of New York city, the following items of gossip relative to late events in the leading circles of Jackson Hall Alley, Frogtown and Hering Hill:

An agreeable evening party was given by Mr Payne a few evenings ago. Many very interesting young ladies and gentlemen were present, and spent a charming evening. Mr. Payne deserves much praise for his efforts to keep society in obserful spirits

"The wedding of Mr. Wm Augustus Gibson and Miss Kate Marshall came off on Thursday, and Miss Kate Marshall came off on Thursday, Sept 5, at 8 p m., at Israel Church, the Rev. Mr. Smith officiating. It was a brilliant affair, though many were prevented from going by the state of the weather. Nevertheless, the church was nearly filled. The parties entered in the following manner: Mrs. Gibson, mother to the groom, supported by Mr. Dennis Smallwood, and Mrs. Dennis Smallwood supported by Mr. John Smallwood; after which followed the bridesmaid and Mr. Jink Brooks, in front of the bride and groom. After the parties were properly arranged before the alter the ceremony was commenced, and before the interesting company they pledged their fore the interesting company they pledged their mutual vows, which joined them before God and man in boly matrimony. The bride wore a su-perb white Swiss muslim trimmed around the neck with lawn lace, and gracefully hung from beneath a wreath of orange blossoms an illusion vail; the whole, though plain, showed a fine and exquisite taste. The bride was a beautiful lady, with large dark eyes and dark hair. The brides-maid, Miss R. V. Gibson, a sister to the groom, was dressed the same as the bride, save the bridal ornaments. The gentleman looked very well After leaving the church, many friends paid their respects and congratulations to the happy pair, at the residence of Mr. Dennis Smallwood, where was prepared a handsome and magnificent wedding tea party. After partaking of the rich delicacles and spending a few happy hours your correspondent left; not, however, before congratulating the happy pair, and wishing them a life of CRUBLTY TO ANIMALS -Ed. Star: In a stroll I took in the northwest part of the city this afternoon, I visited the wagon encampment, and I was amazed at the vast as well as complete preparation of the Government, in this particular, for the war that is upon us. I looked upon the immense number of fine animals congregated there, and thought of the great expense which their purchase must have cost. I saw, too, a sight which gave me great pain. An enraged teamster was engaged in mercilessly beating a large and noble mule. He commenced with the butt-end of his whip over the head and face of the animal, but soon dropping this, he seized a club that lay on the ground, and applied this, with all his strength, in the same manner as he had used the whip before. No effort was made by this brute in human form to coax or persuade the mule into bedience, if indeed he was at all refractory, for I saw no evidence of this; and his whole course towards this poor dumb animal seemed to be nothing less than the most wanton and unprovoked cruelty. A number of teamsters stood by, but not one opened his mouth in behalf of the mule. It seems to me that those in charge of this matter should have an especial eye to the conduct of these men in this respect, or their loss from maimed and injured animals, on account of cruelty from ferocious teamsters, will be immense.

A HINT TO UNCLE SAM .- The Government will lose nothing by keeping an eye to the teams which haul wood to the various military posts We hear of logs falling off occasionally; and what is a little remarkable about such accidents is, that they al-ways occur near the shanty of some friend of the drivers, and there is generally some one in waiting to take whatever Providence may send in the shape of fuel. This applies to Washington, Georgetown, and the surrounding country.

Doing WELL .- Mr. C. W. Cunningham's little daughter, who was accidentally burned a few days since, is doing well. We learn that the child's life was saved by the presence of mind of was in the house, and hearing its cries, immediately ran out and enveloped it in her own clothing, burning her hands badly. The little sufferer is only three years old.

WASHINGTON, Sept 23, 1861. We, the undersigned citizens of Pennsylvania, having the profoundest respect for Colonel Max Exetein, of the 27th Pennsylvania volunteer regiment, do hereby protest against the treatment he has received from his superior officers, and also do we protest against his being kept under arrest any longer without a trial, he having now been under arrest for a period of thirty-seven days without any charge being sustained or preferred against him; and we, as citizens of Pennsylvania, demand his immediate release, as we believe him to be a man of strict integrity and a profound soldier from practice. We also hope that our Government will immediately take this matter in hand and protect from insult such a brave man; and we, as citizens of Pennsylvania, are most desirous of entering under his command at the present.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

THE WAR IN MISSOURI. The Lexington Battle-Various Accounts JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 20.—It is supposed at headquarters that Col. Mulligan's force at Lexington is 3,500. consisting of an Irish brigade. Col Wnlligan, 900; Cel. Marsball's Illinois cavalry, 600; a Kansas regiment, the number of which is not known; 500 home guards, mounted; 500 home guards, infantry; three 6-pounders, one howitzer and two mortars. Some Federal scouts just in report the firing at Lexington still going on Wednesday evening. The rebels are said to have no shells, shrappel or cannister; nothing but round shot and slugs. Near 3,000 Government, horses and mules are within Mulligan's intrenchments, requiring much care to prevent a stampede. KANSAS CITY, Sept. 19 -Advices received by private letter from Lexington to-day say that Gen. Price attacked the Federals at 10 o'clock yesterday morning with a force of 30,000.

The Federal force was estimated at from 3,000

The Federals fought them two hours, when the rebels drove them back into their entrenchments, carrying everything before them.

The Irish brigade then came out and charged them at the point of bayonet, scattering the rebels everywhere.

Gen Price was to attack them again this morn ing with seventeen pieces of artillery. No statements of the loss on either side is given. JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 20 -A special dispatch o the St. Louis Democrat says:

Jeff. C. Davis, commanding here, received hi ppointment as Brigadier General to-day. Gen. Lane is reported to have made a junction with the forces at Lexington with 4,000 men. Reinforcements from St. Joseph are also reported to have reached that place, and Lexington is now considered safe Gen. Price will undoubtedly be surrounded and cut off. It is feared that the reinforcements sent from here have not yet reached Lexington. Heavy batteries are planted at Glascow by the rebels, and our troops will have to disembark below the town and attack them in the rear. Fifteen hundred men, under Col. Smith, over took six hundred rebels as they were crossing the river at Blue Mills Landing, on the 18th, and completely routed them, killing from 150 to 200, and took 12 prisoners. The Federal loss is 50 killed and 25 wounded.

FURTHER PARTICULARS. Sr. Louis, Sept 22 .- It appears that there were two fights at Blue Mills Landing on the 17th. The first between 500 men of the Third lowa Regiment, with one piece of artillery, under Lieut Col. Scott, and about 4,000 rebels. After a desperate struggle of one hour's duration, in which the Federal troops lost 120 killed and wounded, and all their horses, they retreated slowly for half a mile, hauling their cannon by hand, and took up a position on an eminence, and awaited an attack, but the enemy did not pursue. Not long after Col. Smith's command of Federal troops, with four pieces of artillery, approached Blue Mills Landing by another route, and engaged and routed the rebels as they were about crossing the river POSITION OF THE PORCES AT LEXINGTON. ST. Louis, Mo., Sept. 21.—In order to correct confusion and the many contradictory statements relative to the position of Lexington and opposing forces of Col. Mulligan and General Price, it is deemed necessary to make the following expla-

The general direction of the Missouri river at on the southern bank. The early settlement, now called "Old Town," is situated back on a hill and has been superseded by New Lexington, further up the river, where the steamboat landing is, and which is the main city.

Col. Mulligan's fortifications are on a ridge running at right angles between the two towns. They surround the Masonic College buildings, standing about a quarter of a mile from the river, which have been used as quarters for the troops and strengthened to resist an artillery attack. The line of fortifications runs down to the river b'uff, between which and the water's edge is a wide shelving beach. This is the point where the conflict took place on Thursday for the possession of the ferry boats.

The main body of Price's army is situated at the Old Town, but the fortifications have been assailed from all sides except the river. On Thursday of last week an attack was made from the Old Town by a strong party of rebels, who were repulsed with considerable loss, and the Old Town was shelled and burned to prevent its being used as a shelter. Lexington proper is in the possession of Gen Price, but it is not being made the theater of con-

The reinforcements which left Jefferson city on Wednesday, if they were not assailed by batteries along the shore, must have reached the neighborhood of Lexington yesterday. These troops could doubtless have been landed on the south side of the river. The steamers having crossed to the ferry, Gen Sturgis's command being brought across, and succession on Lexington, with the assistance of Mulligan's heroes and Gen. Lane's command, can attack and completely rout Price's whole army

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept 22 .- There is no news from Lexington to-day. The steamer War Eagle arrived from above this evening. This steamer, together with the latan, with the Indiana 22d and 18th regiments on board, accompanied the steamers White Cloud and Desmoines, with the Indiana 26th regiment aboard, as high up the river as Cambridge [about 80 miles below Lexington] where they captured the steamer Sunshine, seized a short time since by Gen. Green. They encoun tered no rebel troops. Union flags were flying at

Glasgow. The steamers War Eagle and Iatan returned from Cambridge, the former to this city and the latter to Boonville. The steamers White Cloud and Desmoines went on up the river to reinforce

While all four boats were laying up for the night, a short distance below Glasgow, two detachments were sent out to reconnoiter. In the dark they encountered each other, and each mistaking the other for the enemy, fired, and before their blunder was discovered four men were killed and several wounded. Among the wounded is Major Gordon Tanner, of the Indiana 22d regiment. THE NATIONAL FLAG STILL PLYING OVER THE FED

BRAL ENTRENCHMENTS. Sr. Louis, Sept. 22 -A special dispatch to the Democrat, from Hamilton, says that reports from Camden, nine miles above Lexington, announce that the United States flag was still flying over Col. Mulligan's entrenchments at Lexington, at 6 o'clock on Saturday morning Gen Fremont has appointed Brigadier Generals

Pope. Siegel and McKinstry to command as acting Major Generals, and Colonels Davis, Mulligan, Kelton and Totten as Brigadier Generals. REPORTED SURRENBER OF COL MULLIGAN AND HIS COMMAND TO GEN PRICE

CHICAGO, Sept 22.—A special dispatch to the Times, sent from Quincy, Ill., at 1 o'clock this morning, says that the mail agent on the Hanni-bal and St. Joseph's railroad, who arrived at 7 o'clock on Saturday evening from St Joseph, states that Col. Mulliyan and his whole command. at Lexington, surrendered to Gen. Price on Friday morning at 5 o'clock.

The siege continued from Monday until the time of surrender. Col. Mulligan's men were without water all Thursday and Friday, and were com-pletely exhausted. They fought most valiantly, but were compelled to yield to vastly superior

THE BATTLE AT BLUE MILLS. After the rebels retreated from Blue Mills Land ing, they crossed the river just in time to fall into the hands of Gen Lane's brigade, 4,000 strong, who were also marching to reinforce Mulligan. The Unionists captured from 700 to 800 rebels. and killed 200. The rebels finally fled and recrossed the river, when the lowa regiment started

Eleven of the rebel prisoners have been brought to Quincy from St. Josephs on Saturday. Two or three are known there to have been concerned in the burning of bridges some days since.

FURTHER OF THE BATTLE AT LEXINGTON. The loss of the Union troops at Lexington is said to be eight or nine hundred killed and wounded, while the loss of the rebels is estimated three or four thousand killed with a proportionate number wounded. The report of the battle and surrender of Col.

render it is thought here there can be no doubt. THE SURRENDER OF COL MULLIGAN NOT CREDITED AT ST. LOUIS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22 .- A special dispatch to the Tribune, from headquarters at St. Louis, this evening, says that the reported surrender of Col. Mulligan is not believed there, and that reinforcements were pushing towards him from four different directions.

PROCLAMATION OF GEN. BUCKNER. Louisville, Sept 21.—The following procla-matten has just been received:

"To the People of Kentucky:

"The Legislature of Kentucky have been faithless to the will of the people. They have endeavered to make your gailant State a fortress, in which, under the gaise of neutrality, the armed forces of the United States might secretly prepare to subjugate alike the people of Kentucky and the southern States.

open violation of your neutrality, with large encampinents of Federal troops on your territory, and a recent official declaration of the President of the United States not to regard your neutral position, coupled with a well-prepared scheme to seize an additional point in your territory which was of vital importance to the safety and defense of Tennessee, that the troops of the Confederacy on the invitation of the people of Kentucky, oc cupied a defensive post in your State. "In doing so, the commander announced his purpose to evacuate your territory simultaneously with a similar movement on the part of the Fed eral forces, whenever the Legislature of Kentucky shall undertake to enforce against both belliger ents the strict neutrality which they have so often declared. I return amongst you, citizens of Ken-tucky, at the head of a force the advance of which is composed entirely of Kentuckians. We do not come to molest any citizen, whatever may be his political opinions. "Unlike the agents of the northern despotism who seek to reduce us to the condition of depend ent vassals, we believe that the recognition of the civil rights of citizens is the foundation of constitutional liberty, and that the claim of the President of the United States to declare martial law, to suspend the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, and to convert every barrack and prison in the land into a Bastile, is nothing but the claim which other tyrants have assumed to subjugate a free people.

"The Confederate States occupy Bowling Green as a defensive position. I renew the pledges of the commanders of other columns of the Confederate troops to retire from the territory of Kentucky on the same conditions which will govern their movements. I further give you my own Lexington is from west to east, Lexington lying assurance that the force under my command will be used as an aid to the government of Kentucky in carrying out the strict neutrality desired by its people, when-ver they undertake to enforce it against the two belligerents alike.

PROCLAMATION OF GENERAL ROBERT ANDERSON TO THE PROPER OF KENTUCKY. LOUISVILLE, Sept. 22 - The following procla mation has just been issued: Kentuckians: Called by the Legislature of this my native State, I hereby assume command of this department. I come to enforce, not to make laws, and, God willing, to protect your lives. Enemies of the country have dared to invade our soil. Kentucky is in danger. She has vainly striven to keep the peace with her neighbors. Our State is now invaded by those who pro fessed to be her friends, but who now seek to conquer her. No true sen of Kentucky can longer hesitate as to his duty to his State and country The invaders must, and, God willing, will be expelled. The leader of the hostile forces who now approaches, is, I regret to say, a Kentuckian making war on Kentucky and Kentuckians. Let all past differences of opinion be overlooked. Every one who now rallies to the support of our Union and our State is a friend. Rally, then, my countrymen, around the flag our fathers loved, which has shielded us so long I call you to arms for self-defense and for the protection of all that is dear to freemen. Let us trust in God and do our duty, as did our fathers ROBERT ANDERSON, Reignetier General, U. S. A. PROCLAMATION OF THE GOVERNOR OF KENTUCKY Governor Magoffin has also issued a proclama-tion ordering Gen. Thomas L. Crittenden to execute the purposes contemplated by the recent resolutions of the Legislature in reference to the expulsion of inveders. Gen. Crittenden has ac cordingly ordered the militia of the State to be mustered forthwith into service.

THE LOUISVILLE HOME GUARD ORDERED OUT. Hamilton Pope, Brigadier General of the Home Guard, also calls upon the people in each ward in Louisville to meet this afternoon and organize themselves into companies for the protection of

MORE INVASION OF TENNESSEE TROOPS The Evening Bulletin says that a body of sever or eight thousand Confederate troops, with twenty one cannon, arrived at Bowling Green (on the railroad, about twenty miles from the Tennessee line,) on Wednesday, taking possession of the cannon there and some 120 stand arms belonging to the Bowling Green Home Guard, and had sent six cannon and 2,000 men to Gen. Roger W.

Hanson, the Confederate commander on Green river. KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE-ARRIVAL OF TROOPS AT LOUISVILLE. FRANKFORT, Sept 21 .- The legislative proceed ings to-day have been unimportant.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 22 -There is no news from below this point, and there is no telegraphic communication south of Lebanon junction. The Forty-ninth Obio Regiment arrived here this morning. On passing the headquarters of General Anderson they were addressed by the general in a brief patriotic speech, which was enthusiastically cheered.

ADVANCE OF THE CONFEDERATES ON ELIZABETH Louisville, Sept. 21.—It is rumored that Gen Buckner has advanced on Elizabethtown.

John Newton, to be a Brigadier General of Volunteers. "It was not until after months of covert and Winfield S. Hancock, to be a Brigadier General of Volunteers.

NAVY YARD.

Yesterday the propeller Pussy, Captain Honan, went down to Maryland Point, returning last night. She reports all quiet on the Potomac. A battery mounting eight guns is visible on the hill just in the rear of the wharf at Aquia Creek, with a large flag waving from its summit. No men can be seen, but there are evidences of quite an encampment. Last Friday the Ice Boat was fred upon by the Aquia Creek batteries, but without doing any damage. Two shots only were fired, both of which fell short. The steamer hoisted ber anchor and dropped quietly a little lower down. out of range. Three small skiffs, picked up on the Maryland shore, were brought up by the Pusey in order that no possible means of communication between Maryland and Virginia may be afforded the secessionists. Under the strict surveillance of the flotilla, few succeed in crossing the Potomac now, and transportation of supplies to the rebels has been pretty effectually checked. Experiments were made with a new cartridge for ordnance, at the yard, this morning, by Lieut. Badger. The improvement consists in a waterproof case for the powder, so that in case of accident at sea, the contents of a magazine may not be destroyed by water, as was that of the R. B. Forbes on her trip from Boston, by which about 1,600 pounds were ruined.

LATE LOCAL NEWS.

MILITARY FUNERALS YESTERDAY .- Capt. Lingerfelter, of Company B, Col. Baker's California Regiment, left his camp with six men on Saturday evening, to go on a scouting expedition. At a point about five miles beyond the Chain Bridge they were attacked by a considerable body of secessionists. Capt Lingerfelter received a ball in his temple which passed through his head, killing him instantly. His Sergeant avenged his death immediately, by killing the soldier seen to sim the fatal shot at Capt L. The body of the Captain was subsequently found untouched at the spot where he fell, and was brought to this city, and yesterday afternoon was conveyed to the de pot, to be sent to his late home in New York city. The body was escorted by his company, marching with arms reversed.

Another funeral escort followed in the same direction. The deceased was Capt. Kerrigan, of

New York. ANOTHER DESCENT UPON MARBLE ALLEY .- On Saturday night the metropolitan police and pro-vost guard paid another visit to Marble Alley and raked out a few of the military gentlemen who had quartered there. The proprietress of one of the establishments was exceedingly wrothy at the visits of the police to her domicile. Through these persistent visitations her girls have been put to their shifts (no pun intended) to conceal their military cavaliers in the closets and clothes presses. Madam was told by the officer of the police that he intended to break up all such establishments in his district. Yesterday another haul was made at a house in the same neighborhood, which resulted in the exposure of some more shoulder-strapped gentlemen. In another locality, the citizens who have endured the outrageous deportment of off cers, threaten to make up a list of those who are openly visiting notorious places of infamy, with the regiments to which they are attached, and the address of their families, in order to report them to the commanding general, and also to their families at home. HIGHWAY ROBBERY .- Wm. Harlowand Nelson Huptall, two soldiers, were met on Maryland avenue near Third street, on the Island, last night by three men, who knocked them down and robbed them of all the money they had. The parties concerned in this outrage were subsequently arrested by the patrolmen and identified by the soldiers. They proved to be John Maher, alias Cunningham, Andrew Kidwell and John Failey, the first two not more than a week or ten days out of the penitentiary, where each served a term, and the last one an "intermittent" boarder at the county jail for the last twelve years. They were committed to jail by Justice Clark.

DRUMMED OUT.—George Hays, alias William Miller, of Company K, U. S. Dragoons, was drummed out of the service this morning for theft. He stole a horse from Truxen Beal, which he sold to Patrick Hurley, and then made his escape to Baltimore. He is also charged with stealing two cavalry revolvers. Detective Kimbali followed and arrested him, and also a discharged soldier named Lavet Pete, supposed to be an accomplice. Hays was drummed out this morning with the usual ceremonies, and he and Pete are both com mitted to answer the charge of felony before the Criminal Court.

NATIONAL FAST DAY.—It will be seen by the advertisement in another column, that Mayor Wallach officially recommends the general observance of Thursday next "as a day of humiliation, fasting and prayer " This is to carry out the request of the joint committee of Congress, and the subsequent proclamation of the President.

CHARGE OF FALSE SWEARING -This morning Policeman Reynolds arrested Jos. R. Swift, on the oath of Adam Ottwith charging him with obtaining by fraud and false swearing a patent for car coupling, thereby defrauding him out of the same. The accused was taken before Justice Donn, who held him to bail for a further hearing.

CONTRABANDS -Six runaway slaves from the adjoining counties in Maryland-over the Eastern Branch-were brought to jail vesterday, and are there confined.
